Strayed or Stolen

Strayed or stolen from the Nathanson ranch one bay horse with white spot between the eyes. Will weigh between 1200 and 1300 pounds. Had rope on neck when he disappeared on Tuesday, December 13th. A liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of the animal.

F. MALANI.

Wonderful Insect Illuminations.

The secretary of the Smithsonian institution, Professor Langley, has been experimenting with Cuban fireflies with a view to discovering the manner in which the illumination they emit is generated. He says that the light they give is the "cheapest" in the world—produced, that is to say, with the least heat and the smallest expenditure of energy—and he believes that a successful imitation of it would prove a most profitable substitute for gas or electricity. The insects are beetles two inches long and belong to the family of 'snapping bugs," so called because when one of them is laid on its back it snaps itself into the air with a clicking sound. The secret of the light this firefly gives is as yet undiscovered.

Apparently it is connected in some way with the mysterious phenomena of life, and chemists and physicists have sought in vain to explain its origin. On each side of the animal's thorax is a luminous membraneous spot, and these flash at intervals, so that the Cubans put a dozen of the insects in a cage together and obtain a continuous illumination bright enough to read by. This light is accompanied by no perceptible heat, and is seemingly produced with no expenditure of energy. How great an improvement it represents upon all known artificial lights can be imagined when it is stated that in candle light, lamp light or gas light the waste is more than 99 per cent.—American Analyst.

A Chronic Case.

Known, chiefly by correspondence, to many persons is a certain invalid who spends her days in studying her "case" and writing about it. Her letters are long, full of unpleasant details and so burdened with inquiries and requests that they have to be answered at almost equal length, and most of them are addressed to men and women to whom time is precious.

Sometimes the invalid asserts that the use of a typ writer would relieve unfavorable symptoms, and asks a hundred questions about the different machines. Again, she finds it necessary to divert her mind, and turns to literature, relying on an author to tell her what and how to write. Then she resolves to make an experiment in treatment, and canvasses by letter for a worthless subscription book that she may gain the money to do so.

But always her "case" is directly or indirectly the theme of the many closely written pages. All things past, present and to come are related to her various afflictions. In the words of a Persian proverb, "Too sun shines that the world may see her wounds."—Youth's Companion.

On Collecting Autographs.

The most elementary form of the stranger's letter is of course the application for an autograph. This application is now reduced to such a system that it causes little inconvenience and should not be refused. There is usually sent with the request a blank card on which the name is to be written, with an envelope stamped and addressed for its return. Nothing can be more unobtrusive or mechanical, though the line of propriety is at once passed, we may say, where two cards are sent, the second one being obviously for exchange purposes or perhaps for sale.

The wary author never, I suspect, writes on both cards, since he does not aim to help out a mere business transaction. Where any applicant goes farther and asks an original letter or copied passage, the affair becomes more serious, and some authors and public men ignore such requests altogether, as being much more serious consumers of time.—T. W. Higginson in Harper's Bazar.

Aunt Scinda's Four Hundred.

"An old negro woman has established a new theocracy at Grenada, Miss.," said J. H. B. Miller, of Coffeyville. "Her name is Scinda, and her followers are called 'Scinda Band.' They number about 400. Scinda is their queen, and rules her flock with an iron rod. They use no Bibles at their meetings, for each member is supposed to know it by heart. If Scinda asks them a Biblical question they are supposed to have an answer at once. They have their meetings every Sunday evening and they are interesting to observe. The congregation—men and women—are decked out in costly ribbons and beads. Their chants are as weird as the sobs and sighs of graveyard trees. They dance to the music of the banjo and tambourine until they are nearly exhausted, and then they go home."—St. Louis Republic.

The Rag Doll.

The rag doll, dearer to the heart of childhood than any other sort of doll, is quite the fashionable doll par excellence at the present moment. Unlike the one our grandmothers made for their little ones, the one cherished by the little folks of today is of flesh colored silk jersey cloth or of cotton balbriggan of the same color. Its body is filled with cotton, and its hair is in many rings of yellow single zephyr stitched on in loops. The face is painted, and when it is necessary to clean it this face can be repainted after the rest has been washed, as it can be without injury.—Detroit Free Press.

An Important Appeal.

Advertisements, especially of the personal kind, will frequently reward the searcher for unexpected anticlimaxes. The following appeared in a New York paper not long ago: "Willie, return to your distracted wife and frantic children! Do you want to hear of your old mother's suicide? You will if you do not let us know where you are at once. Anyway, send back your father's colored meerschaum!"—New York Tribune.

Indian Blood Is Prominent.

People of Indian blood predominate in Para, Brazil, and are found in all classes, from servants and peddlers to capitalists and high government officials. There are very few Portuguese or Africans, and the descendants of both these races show a large admixture of Indian blood. —Philadelphia Ledger.

A PROFESSIONAL "WEEPER."

A Young Scamp Who Finds Begging More Profitable Than Working.

"Jack the Weeper" is well known about the lower part of the town. He has been exploited in the newspapers in connection with arrest and incarceration, has been interviewed and had his picture taken, and on various occasions has sworn off from professional weeping. "Jack the Weeper" is a diminutive looking specimen of a seven-year-old boy with a twenty-year-old face and a stock of experience and cunning rarely accumulated by mankind this side of fifty. He is ostensibly a newsboy, but the fraternity hold him in great contempt or know him only to thump him. His "racket" has been to get a bundle of papers together late in the evening and weep at the foot of the elevated stairs down town.

Sympathetic people cast him pennies and nickels and dimes, and sometimes an occasional quarter or half dollar found an abiding place in the weeper's inside pocket—all on the supposition that he was an honest lad who had been "stuck." Thus the weeper found that tears could be coined into cash more easily and profitably than by the ordinary course of the news trade. But just as Jack had worked up a fairly regular trade in came a policeman, a cold and calculating man of the world, with a club, and broke up business by arrest, examination and consequent publicity.

At the foot of a down town stairway of a Sixth avenue elevated station in the most fashionable part of New York recently occurred a scene which demonstrated that "Jack the Weeper" had not only not gone out of business, but had vastly improved upon former methods.

It was about the fashionable shopping hour and the swell women and dilettante young men were flocking to the down town trains. A delicate lad, with a consumptive cough and a bundle of castoff morning newspapers, stood shivering at the foot of the stairs, two great big homemade tears plowing their way through the dirt on his cheeks as the muddy waters of the Missouri seek the sea. Several of us stopped out of sympathy and began to question the boy. At the same time nearly every hand in the crowd instinctively sought for change. An exceedingly sharp eyed lady impulsively pulled out a bill and pushed it into his trembling fingers, accompanying the act with an appealing look around upon the rest of us. It worked.

Everybody in sight gave silver, and an old lady who came in later on the scene pressed a two dollar note upon the child. I missed two trains to note the goodly sight, and I felt proud of my fellow creatures and the beautiful sympathy of my kind. The boy never said a word. He merely coughed and wept and scooped in the coin. In the excitement of the moment I forget an errand I had at the next station and went past it. Then I got out, went up the other side and rode back.

There was a little mob gathered on the down town side at the foot of the stairs. So nearly like the other mob was it that at first I thought I had made another mistake and gone back to my starting point. But no: it was the next station.

Well, "shiver my timbers!" as the old salt says, if there wasn't the same boy with the same graveyard cough, the same weep, the same old papers, and, what was more astonishing, here was the same sharp eyed, benevolent lady in the midst of a group of sympathetic women, just starting a liberal subscription.

My first impulse was to jump in and grab her and yell for the police, but I conquered it and walked away, wondering how much money there was in this new snap of the woman and the weeper. —New York Herald.

Are Scott and Dickens Obsolete?

Who reads Scott and Dickens now? To that question what is the true answer? The implied answer of course is that no one reads them or that their readers are getting yearly fewer. It may be said at once, and it may be said flatly, that it is not the case. They are not only still read by many people, but they are read by more people today than they ever were before. This fact is substantiated by the copies of their works that are sold; indeed it stares us in the face at every railway book store.

Scott and Dickens, if measured by the number of their readers, are growing in popularity, not declining. I should certainly say that, so far as my own observation can inform me, no two writers are more universally familiar at this moment than Scott and Dickens. The old have read them; the young are reading them, nor need any one doubt the fact because they are not discussed like novelties.—W. H. Mallock in Forum.

A Famous Expression.

"There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip" is a very old saying, and was first uttered to the king of Samos, an island in the Grecian archipelago. This king, Ancæus by name, planted a vineyard and treated the slaves who cultivated it so badly that one of them told him he would never live to taste the wine made from it. When the wine was ready and a cup of it poured out for the king he sent for the slave who had prophesied his death, and asked him what he thought of his prophecy now.

The slave replied, "There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip," and just as he had spoken the words Ancæus received warning that a wild boar had broken into his vineyard and was ruining it. Putting down the wine untasted, he rushed out to attack the boar and was killed.—Harper's Young People.

Athletics and Corsets.

Miss Homans, the head of the Normal School of Gymnastics in Boston, gives in a recent interview these facts concerning the influence of athletics upon dress. "Two years ago," she says, "out of a class of thirty-seven there were but two of the young women at the end of the school year who continued to wear corsets, and no one continued to wear French heels. Last year out of a class of seventy-one seven-eighths gave up wearing corsets."

A BEAUTIFUL SCENE.

Happy School Children in an Indianapolis Schoolroom.

In Indianapolis I entered one of the rooms containing the youngest children at the time of the opening exercises. The scene I encountered was a glimpse of fairyland. I was in a room full of bright and happy children, whose eyes were directed toward the teacher, not because they were forbidden to look in any other direction, but because to them the most attractive object in the room was their teacher. She understood them, sympathized and loved them, and did all in her power to interest them and make them happy.

The room itself was charming. The window sills were filled with living plants, and living plants were scattered here and there throughout the room. The teacher's desk was literally strewn with flowers, and upon each of the children's desks flowers had been placed to welcome the little ones to school.

The book used during the reading lesson was the book of nature—the plant they had just been studying. The scene presented by the happy little children, each with a flower in his hand, surrounding the teacher, who was smiling upon them, was truly beautiful.

For reading matter the children were called upon for sentences expressing thoughts concerning their flowers. The sentences were written upon the board by the teacher, and when a number of them had been written the pupils began to read them. The children were interested because they all took an active part in the lesson from the beginning to the end. They were all observing, all thinking.

Some of the little ones even committed the crime of laying their hands upon the teacher, and she so far forgot herself as to fondle them in return. Yet the discipline was perfect. What is perfect discipline in the classroom but perfect attention? There was no noise, there were everywhere signs of life, and such signs of life as become a gathering of young children.—Dr. J. M. Rice in Forum.

The Madonnas of Botticelli.

As we examine the various madonnas by Botticelli in the galleries of London, Berlin, Paris and Florence we cannot fail to be struck by the ardor of emotion that seems to have animated the painter in his search for the perfect type of beauty realized in the "Crowning of the Virgin." The construction of the head of the Virgin is essentially the same in all Botticelli's pictures, but the fleshly mask and the expression vary, and the final charm of each one remains an undecipherable puzzle.

We feel that this madonna is an intimate vision of the ideal woman who "imparadised" the painter's soul; so Dante speaks of Beatrice, the object of surpassing desire. We marvel at the mouth, at the eyes, at the eyelids, at the sweep of the brows, at the thick golden threaded hair, at the splendor of the draped head over which angels hold a crown, at the beautiful color of the flesh, which suggests a souvenir of the "Vita Nuova."

She hath that paleness of the pearl that's fit
In a fair woman; so much and not more;
She is as high as nature's skill can soar;
Beauty is tried by her comparison.
—Theodore Child in Harper's.

Charged Corsets.

Now that electricity is being more and more widely used it is no longer safe for a woman to carry her watch in the place where it has always been most secure—in her corsets. A New York woman a few days ago was going to pay a visit of curiosity to an electric light plant. She was warned that her watch might be charged with electricity, and so she did not take it with her.

The precaution was useless. The next day the movements of the watch were most eccentric. Now it was fast, now slow, but never right. She asked her husband, who was an electrician, what could be the matter with it, and he soon found that her corset steels had been charged with electricity during her visit to the plant, and that next day, when she placed her watch in its usual resting place, the charge had been communicated to its works.

Of course women have often worn corsets that have been "charged"—at the shop. But here is a new idea.—New York World.

Horses at Grass.

"First—Horses with long tails, three francs.

"Second—Horses with clipped tails, one franc."

If you go to a countryman and ask him the reason for that difference in the charge, he will reply:

The reason is very simple. The horses with long tails can easily drive away the flies, while those with clipped tails cannot do so, and they are so tormented by these insects that they eat absolutely nothing.—Mondo Umoristico.

A Fortune in "Attendances."

A certain hotel keeper in London decided not to charge his customers for attendance, but he found that many of them objected to the omission, and accordingly there appeared the charge of eighteen pence a day in each bill. That eighteen pence produced £2,000 a year. He began business with only £1,500, and he recently retired into private life worth £150,000. He was at one time in domestic service, and he has recently bought an Essex estate, with its old mansion and deer park.—London Tit-Bits.

SONOMA, MARCH 4, 1893.

H. H. GRANICE - - - - - - - - - - - EDITOR

STAMBOUL'S record, 2:07¼, on the Stockton track, stands. This is the verdict of the National Trotting Association of America.

IT is now definitely settled that the Mexican International Railway is to be immediately extended from Durango, Mexico, to the Pacific Coast. A survey has been made across the Sierra Madre Mountains, the most picturesque and important railway route in the republic.

ARRANGEMENTS have just been completed to have the wonderful ten-horned cow of Texas shown in Chicago at the World's Fair. It is now on exhibition in the towns of the Lone Star State, and is one of the greatest curiosities ever exhibited in the United States. She possesses ten well developed horns, two on her head and two on each foot. She is five years old and has had a fine calf.

A BUSHEL of corn will make four gallons of whiskey. Government tax on four gallons of whiskey, $3.60. The whiskey made ripe and old by the new Jay Eye See rapid process, sells rapidly for $4 per gallon, making $16 for four gallons. Of this $16 the farmer gets 25 cents; the government gets $3.60; the railroad gets $2; the manufacturer gets $4; the vender gets $6.25; the user gets the devil; while the producer and tax payer foots the bill.

COUNTY ITEMS.

A white swallow was recently killed in Petaluma.

Paul Luttrell, son of ex-Congressman Luttrell, has begun the publication of a new weekly paper in Santa Rosa called the "Blade."

Prof. I. S. Crawford has resigned as principal of the Santa Rosa public schools to engage in business in an eastern state.

Prof. James Watson of Guerneville, has been utilizing the time incident to vacation in his school to plant prune trees on his farm. He set out last week six hundred trees with his own scholastic hands.

Superintendent Speegle of the county farm, Santa Rosa, says there are now but twenty-five persons enjoying the bounty of the county there. As warm weather approaches the inmates who sought the place as a winter resort leave and seek other homes.

The following factories, giving employment to 800 hands, are located in Petaluma: Fruit Packing Company, Silk Mills, Woolen Mills, Adamson's Dryer and Distillery, Sonoma Preserve Company, Incubator Factory, Golden Eagle Milling Company, Sash and Door Factory, Steam Wagon Factory, Harness Factory, Shoe Factory, Schuler's Cigar Factory and the Petaluma Brewery. All of the above factories are less than 15 miles from Sonoma.

Assessor Longmore will begin the work of assessing the county for the tax of the next fiscal year on Monday next. Following are the deputies selected in the several townships of the county. It will be remembered that the Assessor also collects the road poll tax: W. C. Ellis, Knight's Valley, Washington and Cloverdale townships; W. E. Richards, Mendocino; Wm King, Redwood, Ocean and Salt Point; J. V. Long, Petaluma; F. E. Dowd, Sonoma and Vallejo; D. D. Proctor, Analy and Bodega; W. S. Coulter, Russian River township and Fulton road district; T. W. Lewis, Santa Rosa city and road; J. F. Mulgrew, office deputy.—Democrat.

The Santa Rosa correspondant of the Petaluma Imprint has the following to say about E. J. Livernash, formerly of this place: "The Republican announces that E. J. Livernash, who is soon to come up for a second trial in the Superior Court, has secured an editorial position on the Examiner. I had heard the same thing a few days ago, but being unable to verify the report, I decided to say nothing. Ed. Livernash possesses literary abilities which have to be acknowledged by those who like him the least. If he could only prove to the satisfaction of the doubting ones that at the time of his escapades a year or so ago he was "stark, staring mad," he would get sympathy where now he is given credit for being a clever, though unreliable genius. It is a terrible misfortune for one so young to have such a cloud hanging over him, and I for one would like to see it lifted. At present, however, I am unable to believe that his alleged madness was without method. As the Examiner has called him, he is a freak; and as such he deserves a seat at the same desk with Ambrose Bierce.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a Bilious look. If your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic look and if your Kidneys be affected you have a Pinched Look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and Tonic and acts directly on these vital organs. Cures pimples, Blotches, Boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at Ed. Wegner's Drug Store. 50c per bottle.

A Safe Investment.

Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised druggist a bottle of Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affections of Throat, Lung or Chest, such as Consumption, Inflammation of Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup etc., etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste, perfectly safe, and can always be depended upon. Undisputed Merit.

The great success of the Royal Baking Powder is due to the extreme care exercised by its manufacturers to make it entirely pure, uniform in quality and of the highest leavening power. All the scientific knowledge, care and skill, attained by a twenty years' practical experience and contributed toward this end, and no pharmaceutical preparation can be dispensed with a greater accuracy, precision and exactness. Every article used is absolutely pure. A number of chemists are employed to test the strength of each ingredient, so that its exact power and effect in combination with its co-ingredients is definitely known. Nothing is trusted to chance, and no person is employed in the preparation of the materials used or the manufacture of the powder, who is not an expert in his particular branch of the business. As a consequence the Royal Baking Powder is of the highest grade of excellence, always pure, wholesome and uniform in quality. Each box is like every other, and will retain its powders and produce the same and the highest leavening effect in any climate, at any time. The Government Chemists, after having analyzed all the principal brands in the market, in their reports placed the Royal Baking Powder at the head of the list for strength, purity and wholesomeness, and thousands of tests all over the country have further demonstrated the fact that its qualities are, in every respect, unrivaled.

Nature's Surest Ally.

If nature did not struggle against disease, even in weakly constitutions swift indeed would be the course of a malady to its fatal termination. While nature thus struggles let us, lest worse befall us, aid her efforts with judicious medicinal help. Experience must be our guide in battles with disease, and that "lamp to our feet" indicates Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a safe, tried and thoroughly ally of nature. If the blood be infected with bile, if the bowels and stomach are inactive, if the kidneys fail to expel impurities of which they are the natural outlet, a course of the Bitters is the surest reliance of the sufferer, one, moreover, that is sanctioned by professional indorsement and use for nearly half a century. No American or foreign remedy has earned greater distinction as a remedy for and preventive of chronic liver complaint, malaria, constipation, kidney and rheumatic trouble and debility.

STRICKEN DEAD.

TRUSTWORTHY STATEMENTS.

A recent New York dispatch reads: "James C. H——, a fine looking and apparently healthy man, was observed to stagger while walking on Fifth Avenue this afternoon, and after taking one or two uncertain steps fell to the sidewalk. When picked up he was dead. A physician examined the body, and pronounced heart disease the cause of death. A peculiarly sad feature of the case is that Mr. H—— was on his way to Maine, to settle in the home of his boyhood. He had passed the previous ten years in the western mining country, and had amassed a fortune. If YOU have any of the symptoms given in the following testimonials you should lose no time in seeking relief.

From John L. Roberts, Slatington, Pa.: "I have suffered with palpitation, irregular pulse, fainting and smothering spells, pain in shoulders, side, and arms for over forty years. For twelve years have been treated without avail by prominent physicians in my neighborhood and in New York. Growing constantly worse, smothering spells followed one another, so my life was often in danger and I needed constant care. As my son had been cured by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, he sent me three bottles. The first dose gave me instant relief. Before using the last bottle I was completely cured. Although seventy-five years old I feel twenty years younger. I claim my cure to be almost a miracle."

Here is a letter from Mrs. John Kolges, of Cleveland, O.: "I had been troubled with my heart and stomach for years, but for sixteen months had been confined to my bed. I had four of the best doctors in the city, but none of them could benefit the weakness of my heart. I also had dropsy and rheumatism. I never took medicine that relieved me at once as Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure does. I am much stronger. My appetite is splendid. I gain strength with every dose. I have gained more in six weeks from your treatment than in sixteen months from all the doctors."

Order to Show Cause.

Upon reading and filing the petition of Nancy Meagher, the Executrix of the estate of Agnes Meagher, deceased, praying that she, the executrix, be authorized empowered and directed to mortgage the real estate belonging to said estate, which is described as follows to wit:

Part of lots 225, 226, and 241 of Petaluma Rancho, according to Rowe's Map of said Rancho, and bounded as follows, to wit: On the North by the lands of John W. Todd and the lands of the Bryan estate; on the East by the lands of Ingraham; on the South by the lands of Grover and McDowell; and West by the lands of the estate of Bryan and the lands of Porter Ward, containing 120 acres and situated in Vallejo Township, Sonoma County, California.

It is ordered that all persons interested in said estate, appear before the above named Court on the 27th day of February A. D., 1893, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the Court room of said Court Department One thereof, to show cause if any they can, why the said real estate should not be mortgaged for the purpose of securing the sum of $2802.70-100 for the payment of the indebtedness and the expenses of administration, as is more fully set forth in said petition referred to, which is hereby made for further particulars.

This order shall be served by publication for four successive weeks before said 27th day of February 1893, in the SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE, a newspaper of general circulation, published in Sonoma county.

The appraisers of the estate of the late Jas. McGinty, Messrs I. W. Wright, Pierce Powers and Albert Grosshopf, met in this place yesterday at the law office of R. A. Poppe, attorney for the estate. The value of the estate has been appraised at $3279.

The personal property belonging to the estate of the late Allen Converse was sold at public auction last Saturday by Fred. L. Clark, administrator of the estate. The sum of $100 was realized. All the articles sold were knocked down to bidders at a very good price.

G. H. Hotz, a leading merchant of this place, has purchased from Geo. H. Cornelius lot 75x125 on Broadway, adjoining the residence of Dr. H. H. Davis. It is Mr. Hotz's intention to erect a commodious and handsome residence on his new purchase some time during the present year.

W. A. McCauley, who recently purchased the Ewell ranch, is sparing neither time nor money in making many needed improvements on the place. He has added to his orchard nearly 1000 fruit trees, consisting of French prunes, early Crawford peaches, Bartlett pears and a choice variety of apricots. A small Tokay vineyard has also been set out.

The Cemetery Committee has notified the public that all those who own burial lots in Mountain Cemetery must properly enclose the same and mark their name thereon. Also to remove all rubbish and have their broken fences fixed. No flowers will be permitted to be placed inside the receiving vault. Those wishing to take up new plots must apply to the committee.

The wooden bridge which spans Nathanson's creek on Second-street East is being lowered by J. O. Burkhalter, the bridge builder of Santa Rosa. The structure, which was built by the City Trustees about two months ago, was erected altogether too high, and when it was discovered that the cost of filling in the approaches would cost almost as much as the bridge itself, it was decided as a matter of economy to lower the structure eighteen inches.

The latest acquisition to the Sonoma High School is a cabinet containing zoological, botonical and mineralogical specimens. It is the desire of Prof. Abshire, the principal, to add to these specimens in order that the cabinet may become a credit to the school. Contributions from the patrons and friends of the school will be thankfully received by the professor. There is hardly a family in the valley that cannot contribute something in the way of specimens that are lying around loose about the house and to which little or no value is attached. These would prove just what is needed to complete the High School cabinet.

VALLEJO MONUMENT BILL.

It Passes the Senate Without a Dissenting Vote.

The Vallejo Monument bill, introduced into the Senate by Hon. J. W. Ragsdale, passed that body last Monday without a dissenting vote. Following is the sections of the bill:

Section 1. The sum of five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for the erection of a monument to the memory of the late M. G. Vallejo.

Section 2. Said monument shall be erected in the Court-house grounds, Santa Rosa, California, and the construction of said monument shall be begun and the same completed within two years from the passage and approval of this Act. The design and construction of said monument to be under the supervision of Honorable R. A. Thompson of Santa Rosa, California, Honorable R. A. Poppe of Sonoma, California, and W. H. Miller of San Francisco, California.

Section 3. The Controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant for said amount of five thousand dollars, in favor of said named parties, upon their filing a certificate of completion of said monument specified in section one of this Act.

Section 4. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CITY TRUSTEES.

A New City Hall to be Erected —Other Matters.

The City Trustees met in regular monthly session last Wednesday evening with President Weyl in the chair and Trustees Seipp, Schocken and Litzius present.

Trustee Litzius of the Cemetery Committee reported needed improvements in Mountain Cemetery and asked for $20 to make the same. On motion of Trustee Seipp the request was granted.

President Weyl reported that he had informed the owners of the Sonoma Valley Waters Works that the statement filed with the City Clerk last month was incomplete, and in order to fix the water rates according to law a sworn statement must be made to City Clerk Breitenbach as to the value of said water works. Mrs. Emparan, one of the owners, he stated would comply with the law before the next meeting of the Trustees, whereupon the fixing of the rates was postponed until the next meeting of the Board.

On motion of Trustee Seipp a number of notices were ordered printed and posted, setting forth the rules governing the cemetery.

On motion of Trustee Litzius the Clerk was instructed to draw up an ordinance relating to Mountain Cemetery and the public receiving vault.

On motion of Trustee Litzius, which received a second from Trustee Schocken, a plan was ordered drawn for a new two-story City Hall to be erected in the center of the Plaza.

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid:

D. Valente	$3.00
G. W. Sparks, salary, etc.	23.60
J. P. Weems, hauling	21.00
Total	$47.60

The Board then adjourned.

The Churchill Estate.

Mary F. Churchill of San Francisco has applied for letters of administration on the estate of her husband Wm. H. Churchill, who recently died in that city, and who with his family resided for several years on the Montgomery ranch near this place. The estate is valued at $69,150, with debts amounting to $15,150. The largest holding is the Churchill homestead located on the corner of Haight and Broderick streets, San Francisco, and valued at $20,000. The other property is located in Solano and Butte counties and Nebraska. The heirs are Mrs. Alice P. Spencer, Fred. L. Churchill, Robt. Churchill, Francis W. Churchill, residing in San Francisco, and Mrs. Mary L. Hatch of New York and Mrs. Grace French of Washington.

Adelphic Literary Society.

The following programme was rendered at the High School yesterday by the Adelphic Literary Society: Song, "Dip, Boys, Dip the Oar," society; essay, "Esquimaux Life," Anna Wadsworth; recitation, "Psalm of Marriage," Mabel Lowell; song, "The Arab's Bride," society; reading, "An Original Love Story," Peter Gordenko; essay, "Mythology," Lizzie Harper; reading, "St. Valentine," Bessie Knight. Debate, resolved "That Blaine was a Greater Statesman than Gladstone." Affirmative, Mabel Lowell and Stella Johnson. Negative, Chas. Lowell and Pauline Bates. Song, society. The debate was decided in favor of the affimative.

THE DONAHUE ROAD.

Jas. G. Fair May Yet Become the Owner.

Messrs. Foster, Smith and Markham, who bid $850,000 for the Donahue railroad, and which bid has been confirmed by Judge Angelotti, paid over in the Superior Court at San Rafael, last Monday, ten per cent of the purchase price, or $85,050. The balence, $764,950, must be paid over within thirty days. It is reported that the new owners are negotiating with A. E. Davis, who represents Senator Fair, to transfer their interest to that gentleman for a considerable advance on the sum paid by them for the road. Other reports say that they will operate the road themselves, but it is more than likely that the road will be transferred to Fair or some one of the several rich railway corporations in the East, which have had their eyes on the Tiburon water front, as a terminus of an eastern road on San Francisco Bay, for the past five or six years.

In regard to Fair's negotiating for the road, A. W. Foster, one of the new purchasers, denies the rumor.

Notwithstanding the change in ownership the affairs of the road will be conducted by the present management for some time yet to come as the change of ownership cannot be perfected in a day.

Instructions of Assessors.

The State Board of Equalization has issued the following letter of instruction to County Assessors who will commence their work of assessing next Monday.

The Board has made no change in the form of assessment roll, but has adopted and hereby prescribes the same form for the year 1893 that was used in 1892.

We again call the attention of the assessors to the manner of assessing "improvements." Section 3617, Political Code, paragraph four, defines what are improvements on real estate, viz:

1. All buildings, structures, fixtures, fences and improvements erected upon or affixed to the land.

2. All fruit, nut-bearing, or ornamental trees and vines not of natural growth.

The law contemplates that the assessor, in entering such property on the assessment roll, should segregate it and place a seperate value thereon, and not (as in some instances called to the attention of the Board) simply enter "improvements.

You should enter below the real estate, in the body of the assessment roll, the kind and value, such as house, barn, fence, etc., giving the value, then amount of trees, vines or other improvement, with value, and carry out the total under the proper heading.

Where assessors have failed to do this, it has been misunderstood, and they have been accused of not puting such property on the assessment roll; and in counties where the assessor has complied with the law in this respect, it was thought that this Board had given directions for the placing of new property on the assessment roll that had not been previously assessed. Such, of course, is not the case, and assessors should take pains to have the people understand that it is not a new feature, but simply a compliance with the law, and that this Board expects each assessor having such property in his county to enter it on the roll as hereinbefore directed.

In justice to the large body of taxpayers whose property cannot be concealed, assessors should use more diligence in the assessment of solvent credits. The Board recommends that each assessor have printed in the statement submitted to the taxpayer, and that such taxpayer be required to answer the following questions under oath:

Does any person in this or any other county in the state hold your open note or evidence of indebtedness unsecured by mortgage?

If so, give name and and amount.

A general compliance with this direction will, no doubt, accomplish good results, and in this connection we call your attention to section 3637 as to your duty in the premises.

That's What.

If you want to make your business prosper and your town grow do not be afraid to spend a little money in improvements. There are some we know of in this town who have made money here hand over fist but have not put a dollar back into improvements. They take the money earned here and invest it elsewhere. Is it any wonder that Sonoma is almost on its last legs?

Runaway.

On Saturday morning last a team of horses attached to Henry Castagnassios' vegetable wagon become frightened on First-street East and ran away. When opposite Aguillon's winery one of the animals fell and brought the wagon to a sudden standstill. The driver was thrown from his seat, and although striking the ground square with his face escaped with only a few scratches.

The Donahue Road.

The statement that has been made in a number of the city dailies that the Donahue road had been allowed to run down to increase expenses is not true. Since President Burgen assumed the duties of his office several years ago the road has been kept in the best of condition and many costly improvements have been made on the same. On the Sonoma Valley branch the guage has been broadened, new ties laid down, steel rails have taken the place of iron rails, bridges have been strengthened, the road better ballasted, section houses built and new rolling stock put on the road. To-day the Sonoma Valley branch, as well as the main line running from Tiburon to Ukiah, is in better condition than it has ever been before. Over $100,000 has been spent every year in improving the road since the present management assumed their duties four years ago.

Swimming Baths.

S. Schocken of this place, who has an artesian well with a capacity of nearly 500,000 gallons of water per twenty-four hours, has decided to utilize the same by the erection of an immense swimming tank on his property in the northern part of town facing the railway depot. The tank will be 75x125 feet in size. It will be of concrete and roofed over. A large number of bathing houses will also be erected and a broad walk lined with shade trees and flowering shrubs will surround the same. It is estimated that it will cost nearly $4000 to complete the bathing establishment, which will be opened to the public the present summer. Work of excavating has already commenced.

Misrepresented.

District Attorney Seawell, it appears, was misquoted by the Petaluma Imprint in his expressions regarding the verdict in the Boggs Carriger case. As the expressions imputed to Mr. Seawell appeared in these columns with the proper credit, in a spirit of justice we publish the following letter written by that gentleman to the spicy little daily of Sonoma county:

EDITOR IMPRINT: Some time ago the Santa Rosa correspondent of your paper in commenting upon the verdict of the jury in the Carriger case said: "District Attorney Seawell did not expect more than manslaughter and would not have been surprised at acquittal." I dislike very much to discuss such matters through the columns of newspapers and would remain silent were it not for the fact that your article has been quite generally copied by other county papers, placing me in a false light and reflecting in a measure on either the integrity or intelligence of the jury. I never expressed any surprise whatever at the verdict. I thought then as I now think that there was an abundance of evidence to sustain the verdict. As to the degree that was a matter of conscience with the jury which was composed of representative citizens of our county. Let it be sufficient for me to say that I would not prosecute a case if I believed the defendant innocent of the charge. It is as much my duty to see that no punishment be inflicted upon the innocent as to endeavor to punish the guilty. Yours, etc.,

EMMET SEAWELL.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

NOTHING LIKE IT

Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It checks diseases in the outset, or if they be advanced will prove a potent cure.

FOR WHOSE BENEFIT

No Home should be Without It.

It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of and cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocent and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cures Colic, Diarrhœa, Bowel Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Colds. Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest Aperient and Tonic they can use. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."

THE CABIN ON THE CLAIM.

Lonely, you say, with mighty arch
Of sky so grandly bending?
By bright hued clouds and glittering stars
A tender message sending?

Joyless? When out of crimson cloud
The sunrise pours its glory,
Morn after morn repeating well
Aurora's cheerful story?

Peaceless? When night with noiseless feet,
From fields of herbs and flowers,
Sweet odors in her mantle dark
Bears to this cot of ours?

Like faintest sounds of distant seas
Pounding some castle hoary,
We hear the great world's roar and fret
And trace her changeful story.

As far away white gleaming sail,
Turning a bend of river,
A noble deed with radiant flash
Makes every heartstring quiver.

So, thankful, where the kindly stars
Spangle the blue with beauty,
We look and breathe the fervent wish
That all may do their duty.

Gloves at Afternoon Teas.

Gloves, the crowning finish of a well dressed woman's costume in public, have been of late years greatly misused in American society. One sees them worn at tea tables by the woman elected to represent the hostess in pouring tea, and even at dinner tables, where the wearers have been known to sit through many courses with their right hands bared, the hand of the right glove tucked under the wrist, and the entire left glove kept on. From time immemorial the habitual dinner goers of good society have removed both gloves immediately after taking their places at the table, and have resumed them upon returning to the drawing room, or after rinsing the finger bowls, and before arising from the feast.

Any departure from accepted custom that has only eccentricity or a desire for innovation to recommend it should be avoided; hence there seems no cause for taking up the curious fashion just mentioned, probably set in a heedless moment by some leader of vogue or by an unfortunate woman of rank whose hand was made unpresentable by a disfiguring injury.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Jenny Lind's Frankness.

Jenny Lind's judgment of books, though undirected by anything like literary training, always showed independence and penetration. She was a devoted lover of Carlyle's writings, and the last book she read before her death was Mr. Norton's volume of the correspondence between Carlyle and Emerson. No doubt her admiration for the great denouncer of shams was largely due to the intense sincerity of her own character, which made it impossible for her to tolerate even those slight deviations from strict truthfulness which are seldom taken seriously, but are looked upon as the accepted formula of society, "I am so glad to see you" would hardly have been her greeting to a visitor whose call was inconvenient or ill timed. But, on the other hand, her downrightness of speech had nothing in common with that of Mrs. Candour; it carried no discourtesy with it.—R. J. McNeill in Century.

Mixed Relationship.

There is a family in the southern part of the county whose complicated relationship beats anything upon record. The family name is Runk. A few years ago the Runk family consisted of father and two grown sons. In the same neighborhood there lived a widow and her two comely daughters. The oldest one of the Runk boys married one of the widow's daughters. The young man's father married the other daughter. The other one of the boys married the mother. The question that now bothers the father is whether he is his mother-in-law's father-in-law or his daughter-in-law's son-in-law, and, if both, which the most.—Mascoutah (Ills.) Cor. Chicago Tribune.

Amateur Composers.

The amateur composers of England include the names of the late prince consort, the late Duke of Albany, the Duke of Edinburgh, the Marquis of Devonshire, Lady Baker, Lady Arthur Hill, Lady White and the Hon. Mrs. Malone—all having created melodies of more or less lasting quality. The Earl of Dunraven has organized two orchestras—one at Oxford and the other at Cambridge—of forty members each. Lady Mary Dalrymple is a member of a very successful orchestra composed of ladies.—New York Press.

Japanese Hairpins.

Japanese women put up their hair with wooden, ivory or tortoise shell pins seven or eight inches in length and fully half an inch wide. The pins are usually carved, and are often capped with pivoted figures, which dance with every motion of the wearer.—Baltimore Herald.

A Startling Telegram.

Ten girls in a composition class were told to write a telegram such as would be suitable to send home in case of a railway accident while traveling. One of the girls wrote: "Dear Papa—Mamma is killed. I am in the refreshment room."—Exchange.

Insanity was once looked on as the work of demons. It is now regarded as a purely physical infirmity, perhaps inherited from those who had somehow violated physical law, or induced by our own transgression.

FRIENDS OF THE PUBLIC.

MEN OF MARK WHO GATHER NEWS.

Some Personal Sketches and Incidents of Brain Workers in the Highest Walks of Life.

[New York Tribune.]

The reader of the morning paper who sits by his cosy fireside and is informed of what is transpiring in every quarter of the globe, seldom realizes the amount of actual labor necessary to ascertain, collect, write, transmit, and print this wonderful mass of news. And yet, aside from the special dispatches, it is largely centered in one office, located near the Telegraph building in New York, and presided over by a quiet gentleman in a most masterly manner.

Mr. William Henry Smith, manager of the Associated Press, is in the prime of life, and possesses a mind clear as to the requirements of the public. To properly and promptly handle the mass of matter that passes through his hands is an enormous undertaking, and one which may well test the capacity of any man. Mr. Smith has always been an arduous worker, and it is by no means surprising that his health should, in the past, have suffered more or less thereby. The mental strain necessary to the performance of his duties caused difficulties of digestion which are not easily overcome, and also a uremic colic, both painful and exhausting. All attempts to overcome these tendencies by force of will power failed, and he consulted eminent physicians, among them Dr. Barthol of Philadelphia. In spite, however, of the care and skill of these practitioners, he grew worse constantly. The result can best be described in his own words. He said: "My brother, C. W. Smith, manager of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, came to visit me, and seeing my condition, took upon himself to conduct my case, and so secured a preparation which, I have since learned, he had used successfully himself and in his family. I began its use, and commenced improving at once. This improvement continued, until now I am well, and wholly through the influence of Warner's Safe Cure. I have since then used the remedy with good results in my family, and keep it on hand constantly. I consider it a remarkable medicine."

Mr. George Alfred Townsend, the famous newspaper correspondent, whose letters, written over the nom de plume of "Gath," have attracted such wide attention, said to the writer: "While in England I had a pleasant visit with ex-Gov. S. B. Packard, our Consul at Liverpool. We were remarking on the death of a number of distinguished Americans, when the Governor said: 'Townsend, I can't see why so many of our public men are passing away, victims of one dread scourge. There is no need of their dying if they will consent to avail themselves of what has been provided for them, as I have.' Gov. Packard went on to describe his experience, and I found his Biliousness, Constipation, Stomach Pains.

"I have been afflicted with biliousness and constipation for fifteen years; first one and then another preparation was suggested to me and tried but to no purpose. At last a friend recommended August Flower. I took it according to directions and its effects were wonderful, relieving me of those disagreeable stomach pains which I had been troubled with so long. Words cannot describe the admiration in which I hold your August Flower—it has given me a new lease of life, which before was a burden. Such a medicine is a benefaction to humanity, and its good qualities and wonderful merits should be made known to everyone suffering with dyspepsia or biliousness

A Bogus Muzzle.

An amusing deception connected with dog muzzling came to light the other day in the Ternes quarter of Paris. An old lady, whose pet had been seized among others, complained that while her pug was captured the police allowed that of her neighbor, a painter, to roam at will without a muzzle. The inspector assured the lady that the artist's dog was always muzzled, and was somewhat taken aback on learning that the muzzle in question was merely painted on the animal's head.—London Tit Bits.

Money in Electricity.

A very recent estimate of the capital invested in the electrical industries in the United States is $720,000,000, and of this amount $350,000,000 represents the proportion which electric lighting and power have attained; $100,000,000 is also the estimated investment in electrical supplies, of which the electric lighting and railway appliances constitute a large proportion.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

The Prince of Wales, simple and unostentatious as he always desires his private visits to be, cannot be fittingly entertained for even two or three days without an expenditure of $15,000 or $20,000.

My wife was troubled with nervousness about one year before she took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and at that time had very severe attacks of spasm, convulsion, and pains in different parts of the body; when in this state her lower jaws would set violently and set a sometimes. Bite her tongue, breathe heavily, then short, then seemed to stop entirely, get a wild look in her eyes and rolling around, then stop sometimes; it would take two men to hold her in bed other's so her body would cramp and be so for two hours. She took but two bottles of the Nerve Tonic, which cured her entirely of all these torments, which myself and wife gladly testify it truly had the desired effect. D. S. M'GILLIS.

STAR, LANE CO., OREGON, Feb. 8th, 1892.

DR. B. J. KENDALL CO.,

Dear Sirs:—I have used your KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE for the last twelve years never being without it but a few weeks in that time and I have made several wonderful cures with it. I cured a Curb of long standing. Then I had a four year old colt badly Sweenied; tried every thing without any benefit, so I tried your liniment, and in a few weeks he was well and his shoulder filled up all right, and the other, a four year old that had a Thoroughpin and Blood Spavin on the same joint, and to-day no one can tell which leg it was on. These statements can be proven, if necessary; the four year olds are now seven and can be seen any day at Cottage Grove, Or. S. Z. PAXTON.

We sincerely warn book canvassers and the public against allowing themselves to be led astray and cheated by any of the "catch-penny" so-called "biographies" of the great Statesman which will be thrown on the market within a very short time, and which consist of nothing but a collection of old and unreliable newspaper clippings. Don't be carried away by any flaring and attractive circulars that you may receive relating to any such books, because what you want is

F. G. Nagle SOLD OUT!

THIS AGREEMENT MADE AND ENTERED IN to this third day of October, 1887, between F. G. Nagle of the City of Santa Rosa, party of the first part, and J. W. Ragsdale and R. C. Brown of the same place, the parties of the second part, Witnesseth: That the party of the first part for and in consideration of the sum of SEVEN THOUSAND DOLLARS gold coin of the United States of America, to him in hand paid by the parties of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, does by these presents sell, assign, convey, transfer and set over unto the said parties of the second part and their heirs forever, all those abstracts, books of abstracts, papers, records and files of every nature and kind pertaining to the business of abstracting or conveyancing now conducted and carried on by the party of the first part, at the City of Santa Rosa, Sonoma county; also all the business now on hand or contracted to be done by the party of the first part, as examiner of Records, Abstractor, or Conveyancer; also all the unfinished figures and safe now in the office of said party of the first part, in said City of Santa Rosa.

To have and hold the same and the whole thereof, unto the said parties of the second part and to their heirs forever.

And in consideration of the premises the party of the first part hereby sells, transfers and conveys unto the said parties of the second part, the good will of said business, that is to say the good will of the business of the party of the first part as Examiner of Records, Abstractor and Conveyancer in the County of Sonoma, and the whole thereof.

And the said party of the first part hereby promises, covenants and agrees to and with the parties of the second part, and their heirs, to refrain from and not to carry on or conduct, or in any other manner be engaged in, directly or indirectly, as owner, employee, or otherwise in the business of Searcher of Records, Abstracter or Conveyancer in said County of Sonoma, or any part thereof, so long as the parties of the second part, OR EITHER OF THEM, shall carry on a like business in said Sonoma county.

Provided, that the said party of the first part may carry on the business of Conveyancing in any portion of the said County of Sonoma, except in the City of Santa Rosa.

In witness whereof the said party of the first part has hereto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written. F. G. NAGLE. [SEAL.]

Witness, B. M. SPENCER.

Recorded in Liber B of Bonds and Agreements, page 86, Sonoma County Records.

NAGLE IN COURT.

J. W. RAGSDALE, Plaintiff,

F. G. NAGLE, Defendant.

The plaintiff for cause of action against the defendant alleges: That on the 16th day of November, 1888, said defendant, F. G. Nagle, received from G. W. Call the sum of one hundred (100) dollars, the property of the Sonoma County Abstract Bureau, that of said money said defendant, Nagle, returned to said Bureau the sum of $20 only, and retained, and ever since has retained, the balance of said $100, to-wit, $80, for his own use, and that no part of said $80 has ever been paid; that said Bureau assigned said claim to plaintiff.

For a further and separate cause of action plaintiff alleges: That defendant is indebted to plaintiff in the sum of $80 for money had and received from G. W. Call, November 16th, 1888, for the use and benefit of the Sonoma County Abstract Bureau, which claim has been assigned to the plaintiff, and that no part of the same has ever been paid.

RUTLEDGE & PRESSLEY, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Dec. 9, 1891, complaint filed, summons issued and served. Dec. 15 default and judgment entered against defendant for $80 and costs. Dec. 16th, Nagle pays judgment.
